LETTER PARTLY CLEARS AWAY THE JAMES CAIN MYSTERY.

With the receipt of a letter here by Mrs. Walter Payne, who has been prominently identified with the Red-Cross work in Bourbon county since the beginning of the war, and more lately in the Home Service work of that organization, it is thought that a part of the mystery surrounding the man who attempted to fleece Mr. John Cain out of a sum of money, has been cleared up. The details are still fresh in the memory of the people of this city.

When Mr. Cain received a telegram on July 5 purporting to be from his son, James Cain, asking that twenty dollars be wired to him at New London, Conn., it revived Mr. Cain's hopes that his son might be really alive. Friends, however, knew that it was the attempt of some heartless person to extort money from him. Decoy telegrams and money orders were sent to "Noel Stevens," at New London, Conn. In a few days a message came here to the effect that "Stevens" had been arrested and was being held by the police of that city. He was later turned over to the military authorities.

It is said that the letter received here by Mrs. Payne was written by Noel Stevens, a former resident of Paris, who is or has been in the service, and whose escapades have appeared in print before. The letter, it is alleged, told Mrs. Payne of his arrest and detention for the military authorities at New London on a charge of impersonating a dead soldier, and attempting to secure money by false pretenses. He admitted his guilt, it is stated, but said, in extenuation of his offense, that he was under the influence of liquor at the time, and asked Mrs. Payne to try to induce Mr. Cain not to prosecute him. The latter has not indicated just what steps will be taken, but it is more than likely that the matter will be carried out to the end. The offender has been photographed by the New London police, and as soon as a copy of the photo reaches Paris and the identification is made absolutely certain, vigorous steps will follow.

FOR THE FATHERLESS CHILDREN OF FRANCE.

Mrs. Arthur B. Hancock, of Paris, who is chairman in this county for the Fatherless Children of France Relief movement, is in receipt of a letter from Mr. Phillip Posemer, of New York, Assistant Treasurer of the fund, which is highly commendatory of the work being carried on in this city and county under Mrs. Hancock's supervision. The letter follows:

"July 10, 1919.

"Mrs. A. B. Hancock,
Paris, Kentucky.

"My Dear Mrs. Hancock:

"Thank you for your letter of July 7. We do not believe that Paris, Kentucky, which has made such a splendid record for adoption of children, is going to desert the children now.

"I am perfectly sure that you will be able to take care of all the 155 children. When other cities are realizing that in spite of the cessation of hostilities the need is great, and are making every effort and taking their children for an additional year, Paris is not going to fall by the wayside. Surely, the name was taken from the Paris of France, and you are going to live up to it.

"Will you not, through the newspapers, appeal to the pride of the residents to hold up their end of the work?

"If your committee cannot take care of the children they will be dropped. We have so many new children waiting for adoption, and each committee has its own family to readopt, that we cannot transfer them elsewhere.

"With confidence that you will not let them suffer.

"Very sincerely yours,
"PHILIP POSEMER."
"Assistant Treasurer."

INTERESTING OIL NOTES

The extreme heat wave which has been hovering over the oil fields in both the eastern and western sections has caused a slight retardation in the amount of drilling that is generally in evidence of these sections. During the past week only 55 completions were reported on the Kentucky Oil Exchange.

President W. R. Blakemore and Sales Manager Charles P. Mann, of the Lee-Kent Oil Company, are back home from a tour of inspection of the company's property in Lee county. Two fine wells are flowing a good run of oil and well No. 3, now down 600 feet, is expected to drill in this week. These wells are on the Popular Thicker lease in Big Sinking.

The Jake Moulder gusher, which was completed by the Swiss Oil Corporation, has been the subject of the most interest yet caused by a Kentucky well. This will be completed at a depth of 375 feet and from the great flow of oil from the well when it was shot. The drillers reported that it is good for at least 4,000 barrels or possibly 5,000. This is the largest well that the Kentucky fields have ever produced.

The announcement is made by Abram Renick, president of the McCombs Producing and Refining Company, that the surplus earnings of the company have been sufficient to meet the payment of the quarterly dividend for the period ending July 30, as shown by auditing of the books which is now nearing completion. The stockholders of the company met at the offices in Winchester during the past week.

The Swiss Oil Corporation, which has offices in Lexington, and of which J. Fred Miles is General Manager, has brought in the most productive oil well in Kentucky on the Jake Moulder farm, in Warren county, on the Barren River, 20 miles from Bowling Green.

The well is estimated by persons who have seen it flowing into an earthen tank and overflowing that into a dammed up ravine, to be good for more than 4,000 barrels per day. This property was purchased last month by the company from Ohio and Indiana parties.

PARIS WATER COMPANY

We have had numerous inquiries regarding a supposed advance in our charges for water, and, therefore, wish to state that there has been NO CHANGE since that announced in our circular and advertisement of last December, when we restored the old contract rates, with an addition of ten per cent, to make up in part for increased costs to us.

Any increase in the amount of your July bill over those of April and January is explained by the fact that the entire ten per cent. increase referred to above was not applied until July 1st.

For 5,000 to 10,000 gallons per day, $.22 per 1,000 gallons.

For 10,000 to 20,000 gallons per day, $.198 per 1,000 gallons.

For more than 20,000 gallons per day, $.176 per 1,000 gallons.

Minimum charge, $16.50 per year.

Any old meter rates for water for special purposes which conflict with this schedule have been abolished.

OVERDUE ACCOUNTS.

We find on our books many accounts which are three months or more overdue, and, as it is impossible for us to continue to furnish water unless we are properly and promptly reimbursed, we are reluctantly obliged to announce that unless such bills are paid on or before July 17, service to these delinquent customers will be discontinued. In such cases the service will not be resumed until the full amount due us is paid, together with a charge of $1.00 for turning on.

BILLS DUE.

All bills are due and payable on presentation, and are rendered on the first day of January, April, July and October, and hereafter must be paid on the 15th of the same month, or service will be discontinued.

Your co-operation will avoid forcing us to take the unpleasant steps indicated above.

INCREASES CITY TAXES DUE TO THE TAX LAW.

Every property owner in Paris has been served with a notice from the City Board of Tax Supervisors that their property has been raised. It has caused a great howl from the tax payers, and a lot of discussion has been caused, and a lot of discussion of the present Tax Laws has been indulged in. THE NEWS man has been drawn into several of these debates with our Democratic candidate for the Legislature.

In an interview, J. H. Thompson, a student of taxation, said: "I told the tax-payers of Harrison county, in an address in Cynthiana recently, that in view of the results obtained under the present tax law it would seem almost unbelievable that any real estate owner could now endorse this plan of taxation. The burden falls doubly heavy on city real estate because it pays three different taxes. Any increase ordered by the State will naturally result in an increase in county and city taxes, also."

"The principal protests that have been heard against the present tax law have come from the land owners of the State. This has created the impression that the law was burdening farm property to the exclusion of other real estate. This is a mistaken idea because all real estate, whether farm lands, town lots or city buildings, is treated alike under the law. In fact, town property suffers more from added burdens than farm lands, because any increase in assessment by the State usually results in a like increase for county and city purposes as well."

"The assessment of real estate is first made for State purposes. The county is required to take the same assessment; that is, the County Equalization Board is ordered by the State Tax Commission to make the assessment for State purposes, therefore in doing so, makes the assessment for county purposes at the same time.

"Naturally the City Equalization Board will accept the values fixed on city property by the county and State equalizer. Therefore, the law which causes the increase in assessment for State purposes is responsible for the increase in county and city taxes as well."

"The result of the recent increase in the city taxes of Paris will cause a loss in revenue to owners of city property. In some cases this will result in increased rentals to the tenants of residential and business property."

SEES DOMINATION OF FOOD PRODUCTS BY PACKERS.

An approaching packer domination of all important foods in the United States, and international control of meat products with foreign companies, seems a certainty unless fundamental action is taken to prevent it, the Federal Trade Commission declared in part of one of its reports to President Wilson on the "extent and growth of power of the five packers in meat and other industries."

"A fair consideration of the course the five packers have followed and the position they have already reached," said the report, "must lead to the conclusion that they threaten the freedom of the market of the country's food industries and of the by-product industries linked therewith. The meat packer control of other foods will not require long in developing."

Declaring "the history of the packers' growth is interwoven with illegal commissions, and radiates with undiscovered control of corporations," the report urged the independence of full publicity of corporate ownership for all industries.

A SHORTAGE IN SUGAR CAUSES HOUSEKEEPERS UNEASINESS

The sugar shortage in this city has progressed to a point where the local grocers cannot go any further than try to care of their own customers. The sweet stuff has become really scarce, and it is probable that it will come to the point where the allotment process in vogue during the war may again take effect unless relief comes through the wholesalers. It was stated here Saturday that the immediate cause of the shortage is the inability of the wholesalers to get the sugar from brokers or the refineries. Cars which usually bring sugar to Paris at stated intervals to supply the local demand have not arrived for some time, and the prospect for a large supply is not encouraging.

A bumper crop of blackberries in this section this year is affected by the sugar famine in that a large portion of the crop hitherto made into preserves will this season not be put up for winter sweets. The berries have been coming into the Paris market for some time, but with no sugar for preserving and canning, the only demand for them will be for serving them fresh.

The general opinion of wholesalers is that the shortage will continue throughout July and August, with some relief in early September. The movement on foot to stop the exportation of sugar may bring about some improvement in the situation. The sugar shortage does not stop with the granulated variety, but is affecting the brown variety as well, though the brown lasts longer, as people will not use it as long as they can get the granulated article.

EDITORIAL MUSINGS.

A Good Pal.

Do you ever stop to consider the manner in which your boy employs his spare time? Do you sit and read or smoke or both and pay little or no attention to him until he does something of which you disapprove, then scold him? Or is he out of sight and out of mind, following his own inclination in the quest of amusement? Perhaps he is in the company of boys whose conduct is open to question; boys who swear and smoke and tell filthy stories. It should not be and need not be so.

Girls are naturally more inclined to play the domestic games and to be in the company of the mother. But boys—are boys.

It is characteristic of the boy to look up to his daddy; to admire him; to follow his example and to imitate him. And nothing will please him more than for you, his father, to converse with him, not as with a little boy, but as with a little man.

Consider this plan for some Saturday or Sunday afternoon. Invite him to join you in a walk. It matters little where you walk, that boy will find oodles of questions to ask and more than once you will find yourself stumped and unable to answer. And if you are unable to tell him "the deepest depth of the ocean," or "why the sky is blue," or "when and where the telephone was him."

"invented and by whom," don't evade the issue. Just confess to him you do not know, and make it your business to find out about it when you get home. Then do it. You will find yourself benefited as much as is the boy. You will gain a wider and deeper knowledge on more than one subject.

Talk with him. He thinks his daddy is IT. So it's up to you to be IT, as far as lies in your power. Use the best English possible in your conversation and correct his faulty dictation. Play with him. Throw stones at poles, and run—even though Monday finds your unused muscles stiff and sore. It's worth the trial, and every time you move and groan with pain, you will have a corresponding thrill—a thrill for every twinge—in the realization that you have done something worth while.

The boy is one of the best educators in the land, and he as well as yourself will profit.

There are dozens of fathers and sons in Paris who are hardly acquainted. What looks better than to see a father and son who are chums in the true sense?

Cultivate him. You'll find him the best pal yet.

Whose Ox Is Gored?

A string of newspapers zigzagging the country raked in about four million pennies a day up to less than two years ago. Pennies may not amount to much, but all these newspapers doubled their sale prices, with the result that instead of four million there are now eight million pennies a day collected into treasury. And these are the principal papers of the country that are ranting about "high prices," and the charge made for service by the railroads, street car lines, lighting and power systems. One of these papers, printed in Washington, says that after awhile things will be cheaper, and "then the street car companies will not need to increase fares in order to keep out of bankruptcy." The same newspaper has carried the stories of necessary prices of commodities, labor, etc., amounting to from 50 to 100 per cent. in most instances.

However, publications of this kind have saved their own oxen from being gored—and they wax fat on creating class hatred by attacking defenseless industrial interests.

A. F. of L. Backs Better Pay For Teachers.

A dispatch from Milwaukee, where the National Educational Association's convention is in session, states that the Legislative Representative of the American Federation of Labor has pledged the support of that body in a campaign for better wages for American public school teachers. This is in line with action taken at the recent Atlantic City convention of this big labor organization, and shows that the laboring men of America appreciate the importance of good education for young people of the country.

During a session of the Milwaukee Convention, Miss Margaret Haley, of Chicago, declared that a desperate effort is being made by "the big business interests to get in control of the association, which they regard as the citadel of future public opinion in the United States." This warning note is worthy of serious consideration. The public school system of America is one institution which can never be commercialized; any movement to that end would be a menace to democratic government and should be choked to death without a moment's hesitation. Business, whether big business or small, has no business meddling with our public school system—that is one thing which is now and always, the business of the public.

Even The Men.

We have always boasted that the women were the original gossips and were very much taken aback when a lady friend told us the following little story:

"It was a little dinner just for four and a remark was made that I privately challenged.

"I made a little bet with myself promptly; if I won I would take French pastry for dessert, if I lost I would try to be charming and ask for cheese and wafers.

"I waited most patiently and was rewarded by an exciting morsel of gossip, which caused us all to become busily engaged in figuring how it all happened—not too busy, however, that I couldn't enjoy my French pastry very-very much.

"The host had told us the tale, cheerfully forgetting his first remark that 'men never, never gossip.' Perhaps they use another word. Do they?"

Luke McLuke once said: "If it wasn't for the men the women would be the biggest gossips on earth." And perhaps Luke was right.

Rushing to the Grave.

Everything hurries in New York, including the undertakers. If the mourners will consent to the vehicle moving at a trot on the way to the cemetery, the charge is about half of that for a walking funeral.—Emporia Gazette.

The more worthless a man the easier it is for some women to marry him.

HOW THEY WILL STAND ON THE OFFICIAL BALLOT.

THE NEWS has received numerous inquiries as to how the Democratic candidates' names will appear on the official ballot to be voted in on the primary election on August 2. The ticket will be as shown in the accompanying:

For Governor—P. J. Noel, James D. Black, John D. Carroll; For Lieutenant-Governor—W. H. Shanks, R. C. Oldham; For Secretary of State—D. E. McQuery, Matt S. Cohen, Frank P. Hager; For Auditor of Public Accounts—J. W. P. Brouse, John W. Rawlings, Andrew Clark, Vance Henry M. Bosworth; For Attorney-General—Frank E. Daugherty, R. W. Lisanby, Ryland C. Musick, Allen Wilson Baker; For Clerk of the Court of Appeals—Alvin Steger, John A. Goodman, William B. O'Connell; For State Superintendent of Public Instruction—W. P. King, Rice S. Ebanks, L. E. Foster; For Commissioner of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics—John W. Newman, James G. Cecil; For Representative from Bourbon County—James H. Thompson.

THE WEATHER.

The Weather Bureau at Washington predicts a continuation of the prevailing heated spell, with very little relief in prospect. During the past few days the temperature has equalled that of the tropics, reaching as high as 100 degrees several times. Sultry nights have made sleep almost impossible, and midnight has seen lawn parties at numerous homes in the city, where the home-dwellers preferred taking chances or keeping outside until necessity should drive them in. A slight breeze yesterday partly conquered old Sol's activity, but still, there was heat enough to remind one of Peter Vinegar's celebrated day.

NEW WHEAT CROP COMING IN FREELY.

Bourbon county's new wheat crop has been coming in freely from the threshers, both by motor trucks and wagons. The quality is reported as medium, but the yield is falling far short of expectations in most cases. Many crops have averaged as much as thirty bushels.

Buyers are paying $2.14 per bushel for the cereal delivered. This price was quoted by the Paris Milling Co. Saturday.

THINGS TO WORRY ABOUT

The following is said to be the shortest sentence that contains all letters of the English alphabet: "Pack my box with five dozen liquor jugs." In view of the activity of government agents in looking for violations of the prohibition laws, it is likely to lead to some very much longer sentences.

DR. FRANKLIN TAKING SPECIAL COURSE IN OPTOMETRY

Dr. William Riley Franklin, Optometrist, of Paris, is in Chicago, where he is pursuing a special course of study in optometry. He will install a complete lens grinding plant, and will take care of all work of that kind with his own machine.

A. B. HANCOCK'S CELT HEADS LIST OF WINNING SIRENS.

Sires of winning two-year-olds invariably make the fashion and the sires with the greatest number of winners make the market for yearlings. This season Celt heads the list, the son of Commanda—Maid of Erin owned by Arthur B. Hancock, of Bourbon county, and proprietor of the Claiborne stud in Kentucky and the Ellerslie in Virginia, at which place the leading sire now stands, having ten to his credit with a total amount won of $16,701. Celt has had no one representative to pile up his winnings, but the ten winners furnish an average of $1,670, figures that speak volumes for the number of colts and fillies by Celt racing in the East and West. Cinderella is the largest money winner by the son of Commanda and Maid of Erin, but Head Over Heels has raced in better company than any of the youngsters by the great sire.

SUMMER COMPLAINT IN CHILDREN.

There is not anything like so many deaths from this disease now as before Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy came into such general use. When this remedy is given with castor oil as directed and proper care is taken as to diet, it is safe to say that fully ninety-nine out of every hundred cases recover. Mr. W. G. Campbell, of Butler, Tenn., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy for summer complaint in children. It is far ahead of anything I have ever used for this purpose."

(July-adv.)

COMMISSIONER COHEN GIVES ESTIMATE OF WHEAT CROP.

According to the monthly review of State Commissioner of Agriculture Cohen, just issued, the estimated wheat yield for Kentucky this year is 15,000,000 bushels, or an average of 14.7 bushels to the acre. The corn crop is progressing nicely, but needs cultivation badly. A wet May delayed the planting, and this together with acute labor shortage and the pressure of wheat harvest, has not permitted the attention it should have. Oats crop is estimated at 24 bushels to the acre.

The Burley tobacco crop is reported to be 80 per cent. normal and the dark tobacco crop 81 per cent. Hay is rated in the report at 93, bluegrass 95, orchard grass 93, alfalfa 99 and garden truck at 87 per cent. Live stock is reported to be generally in good condition.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS

Mr. John Brophy purchased of Mr. Frank Burton four lots in the new Fairview addition to Paris, located on the North Middlefield pike, for about $650. The lots adjoin property already owned by Mr. Brophy.

The old McCarney homestead, on Pleasant street, was sold last week by Miss Iva McCarney, to Mr. J. D. Wilson, of Harrison county, for $3,000. Mr. Wilson will move to Paris to reside permanently. The sale was made through Harris & Speakes, real estate agents, of Paris. This property was for many years the home of Mr. John McCarney, one of the pioneers of Paris, and of the late Geo. T. McCarney.

ACCIDENT IS JURY'S VERDICT

A jury presided over by Dr. David W. Stephens, Kenton County Coroner, returned a verdict Friday afternoon that the death of Joseph H. Murray, 23 years old, whose body was found in the Y. M. C. A. pool, in Covington, July 1, was due to an unavoidable accident.

The verdict of the jury exonerates officials of the Y. M. C. A. from negligence, and states every precaution had been taken to safeguard members of the Y. M. C. A.

RACING COMMISSION GIVES LEXINGTON SEVEN DAYS.

The State Racing Commission met in the offices of the board, in Lexington, Wednesday, with Chairman Johnson N. Camden, Thomas A. Combs, J. O. Keene and Judge Allie A. Young present, and allotted dates for autumn racing on the three tracks now being operated under the jurisdiction of that body.

Lexington is given seven days, Sept. 13-20 inclusive; Latonia twenty-two days, Sept. 24 to Oct. 18, and Churchill Downs nine days, Oct. 23 to Nov. 1.

The commission reinstated Thomas Hodge, whose license has been reinstated during the past three years, following the meeting at Tiawana, in Mexico, his offense having been an alleged fraud while racing in Kentucky prior to the meeting on the Pacific coast.

A rule was offered prohibiting all suspended persons from appearing on any track during the period of suspension, at any time. Another rule was offered providing for one race each week during the racing season, in which only jockeys who have never won shall have mounts.

The commission approved all the stakes scheduled for Lexington, Latonia and Churchill Downs during the autumn, including two new races, the Twin City Handicap for three-year-olds and upward at one and five-eighths miles, of a value of $5,000 to be run at Latonia, and the Lexington Cup, for three-year-olds and upward at one and a half miles, of a value of $5,000.

CITY ENGINEER ELECTED; WILL HAVE ASSISTANT

At a special meeting of the Paris City Council, Mr. A. H. Boehmer, of Louisville, who was elected civil engineer to supervise building of new streets in Paris, at a salary of $200 per month, was allowed an assistant, who will receive a salary of $150 per month.

A request was made by the Paris Water Company for permission to raise the water rates, both to the city and private consumers. This the Council denied, but, as the Paris Water Co. is operating in Paris without a franchise, they will in all probability raise the water rates in spite of the council's action.

The personnel of the show includes a large number of local fun makers, and vocalists, many of whom have had large experience in other similar enterprises in this city at various times. The promoters promise the people of Paris a clean-cut performance of merit and one well worthy of their patronage.

GETTING REAL SASSY!

The street paving company which constructed Main street, and which was under bond to keep the street in repair for a certain number of years, sent a letter to Paris officials enclosing a check for $100 to pay for so much needed improvements. The letter received said that the sending of the check was the only action the company proposed to take, and the city could take it or leave it, as it might suit their pleasure.

Certain parts of Main street have fallen into a state of bad repair, being in a really deplorable condition. Holes as big as the circumference of a hoghead have been worn in the surface, while a series of smaller ones are scattered from Tenth street to Second. A ride at fair speed over Main street is a good remedy for a torpid liver, and the jolts these holes occasion would drive away even the "alcoholic blues."

The new street ordinance for the construction of certain streets with improved materials was passed by a unanimous vote. The city is to pay one-third and the citizens two-thirds of the cost of construction. The Council confirmed the recommendation of the Improvement Committee in the selection of Mr. A. H. Boehmer, of Louisville, as construction engineer.

Chief of Police Link reported he had notified all delinquent persons, who had failed to take out licenses. The various names were handed over to the legal department for action.

Concrete pavements were ordered built on the west side of Fithian avenue in front of the property of Ed. T. Rule, Mrs. Mary Walker, Mrs. L. R. Bramblette, J. J. Veatch, Clarence Plummer, John Chisholm, Mrs. R. M. Harris, Jas. Daugherty and Homer D. Shy.

A permit was granted to the new Independent Tobacco Warehouse Co. to erect a sales warehouse, to be known as No. 3, on the north side of the present building. It is to cost approximately $15,000. Architects are at work drawing plans and making specifications for the construction of the building.

R.H. Kennedy-Lecturer

Extreme interest is being manifested in the retail merchandising lecture which is being brought to this city by the merchants and business men of Paris, and which will be shown free of charge to all merchants and clerks on Wednesday night, July 16, at 8 o'clock, in the Alamo Theatre. The lecture, which has been prepared by the National Cash Register Company, contains the result of thirty-four years' spent in collecting retail merchandising ideas from merchants in all parts of the world, and is by far the best lecture of its character on the road to-day. Mr. R. H. Kennedy will be the lecturer, and by means of stereopticon slides and motion pictures he will discuss the causes of failures, and explain some of the latest methods of storekeeping. An interesting feature of the lecture will be the part devoted to newspaper advertising. Writing of newspaper advertisements, selection of mediums, and the necessity for a policy of continuous advertising by the retailer will be taken up in detail. By the same method the question of proper window display, delivery problems, perfection of a store organization, and other interesting matters will be discussed.

In addition, the three reel feature film, "The Troubles of a Merchant, and How to Stop Them," will be shown for the first time in this city. This film has been exhibited before commercial bodies, conventions, and other organizations in the city are invited to attend.

coast, and has everywhere been declared to be the best exposition of modern business methods ever given.

The film tells in an interesting manner the story of Mr. White, a merchant who through lax business methods and poor system had been brought to the verge of bankruptcy. As the film progresses, the causes for his failure are vividly portrayed. His clerks were indifferent, his goods badly arranged, his system thoroughly disorganized.

Because of the enthusiasm created in other cities where the film has been shown, it is expected that a capacity audience will greet the lecture in this city. Every scene is said to contain a lesson. All merchants and salespeople in the city are invited to attend.

WHAT'S THE REASON?

Many Paris People in Poor Health Without Knowing the Cause.

There are scores of people who drag out a miserable existence without realizing the cause of their suffering. Day after day they are racked with backache and headache; suffer from nervousness, dizziness, weakness, languor and depression. Perhaps the kidneys have fallen behind in their work of filtering the blood and that may be the root of the trouble. Look to your kidneys, assist them in their work—give them the help they need. You can use no more highly recommended remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills—endorsed by the people all over the country and by your neighbors in Paris.

Mrs. John Mastin, 1439 High street, Paris, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results and I know from the help they gave me that they would be just as beneficial in other cases of kidney trouble. I had a dead, dull ache across the small of my back and my kidneys acted irregularly. Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of those complaints, and if I should need a kidney remedy again I would certainly take Doan's."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Mastin had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

WOMAN'S DEPARTMENT AT THE BLUE GRASS FAIR.

The women's department of the Blue Grass Fair this year is under the supervision of Mrs. W. G. Simpson, who, with her assistants, has gone over the various classifications and opened new classes for varieties of work and articles developed by the war. Visitors to the Floral Hall will not find the same old staid material that has been exhibited heretofore, but will see on display a new variety of useful and ornamental goods, placed on exhibit at Lexington for the first time. Mrs. Simpson is working up a "mountain exhibit," open exclusively to women of the mountain section of Kentucky, and it is confidently expected that this will prove one of the most interesting features in the hall. All goods are to be exhibited as the property of the maker and will include quilts, bed spreads, carpets and other articles that the mountain women have become so expert in making.

SUMMER COMPLAINT QUICKLY RELIEVED.

"About two years ago when suffering from a severe attack of summer complaint, I took Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and it relieved me almost instantly," writes Mrs. Henry Jewett, Clark Mills, N. Y. This is an excellent remedy for colic and diarrhoea and should be kept at hand by every family.

ROOFING THE PANAMA CANAL.

(Thomas F. Logan in Leslie's. Gen. Goethals was told that the right way to stop the slides was to put a roof over the land alongside the canal, keep the rain from seeping into the soil, bore wells and pump out the water already in the earth and give the soil a chance to dry out.

It was suggested that he ought first to cut away a great share of the weight of the hills along the cut, and then to roof over the remaining mass with an asphalt surface, that would prevent any more rain water being absorbed into the earth. That advice was regarded at the time as rather ludicrous. Now it is beginning to be taken seriously, and there is inquiry as to why it could not command attention earlier. The geologists who could not get a hearing insisted that, while the character and stratification of the formation at

Culebra favored slides, the real cause of the trouble was the surface absorption of rain, as reports have shown rainfall as much as four inches in an hour. The geologists pointed out that the dry dock and soil would not slide, but that when water in such large quantities was mixed with it in dry country the walls of deep gorges through beds of soft consolidated sediments, stand for great lengths of time, as in the railroad and street cuts in the silt formations along the Missouri River.

These will cave in when they are continuously wet; in the dry regions

they stand indefinitely.

(Letter from Montgomery, Mo., in Kansas City Star.)

After a wait of nearly 100 years a monument is to be erected over the burial place of Daniel Boone, the great American woodsman, near Marthasville, Warren county, Missouri. The marker is to be erected through the efforts of the Daughters of the American Revolution. It is to be made of a large red granite bowlder found in Warren county.

The marker will be dedicated Oct. 29 at the close of a conference of the Missouri Daughters of the American Revolution, which is to be held in St. Louis. It is planned to make the event an important one. It has been said that the efforts made to remove Boone's body from its first burial place were a failure and that the delegates who came from Kentucky for that purpose made a mistake and took the bones of a man and woman who were buried near Boone and his wife. Whether this is true or not, it has been contended for some time that there ought to be some kind of a monument erected over the spot where he was buried. Monuments have been erected in his honor in Kentucky and in North Carolina.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!

BANK EMPLOYEES ARE SAVERS

The National Bank of Commerce at Springfield, Mo., has won the distinction of being the first bank in the Eighth Federal Reserve District, so far as reported, to organize a War Savings Society comprising the officers and employes of the bank.

The big city in the southwestern part of Missouri, was recently visited by organizers from the headquarters of the War Savings Organization, and the bank officials and clerks took an active interest in the work.

John Landers, Chairman of the Board of Directors, aided in forming the organization, and was one of the first signers of the pledge cards.

GERMAN NATIONAL ASSEMBLY
PATIFIES PEACE TREATY

WEIMAR, July 14. (VIA COBLENZ)—The resolution ratifying the peace treaty was adopted by the German National Assembly Wednesday by a vote of 208 to 115.

The resolution reads:

"The peace treaty signed on June 28, 1919, as well as the protocol annexed and special agreements on military occupation of the Rhineland are hereby ratified. This law becomes effective from the time of its promulgation."

Ratification of the peace treaty by the German National Assembly removes all doubt of the acceptance of the terms by Germany.

The National Assembly by ratifying the treaty makes it possible for the Allied and Associated Powers to raise the blockade. Official notification was sent Germany June 29 that the blockade would be raised when the treaty was ratified. Placing this condition on the raising of the blockade was looked upon in peace conference circles as a sure plan for securing speedy ratification by Germany.

The Council of Five previously decided to lift the commercial censorship on communications with Germany simultaneously with the blockade.

The resolution adopted by the Allied council concerning the blockade was as follows:

"The superior blockade council is instructed to base its arrangements for rescinding restriction upon trade with Germany upon the assumption that the Allied and Associated Powers will not wait to raise the blockade until the completion of ratification, as provided for at the end of the treaty with Germany, but that it is to be raised immediately upon receipt of information that the treaty of peace has been ratified by Germany."

Promulgation of the resolution ratifying the treaty is dependent upon the signing of the resolution by President Ebert.

The German National Assembly is the first elective body in any country whose representatives signed the treaty to adopt a ratifying resolution. The treaty has been laid before the British, French and Belgian parliaments, and will be placed before the Senate of the United States Thursday by President Wilson.

DIAMONDS FOR THE GIRL.

Diamonds, that have for eons been recognized as the proper caper when a betrothal is to be sealed, and that have been looked upon as a good object in which to invest surplus funds, are advancing in price.

Even in blighted Germany, says the St. Louis Star, the demand is exceeding all bounds, and a leading jeweler says they may go to $1,000 a karat in the near future.

"Be that as it may," said another jeweler, "it is going to be hard to convince every man of the value of diamonds as an investment. For popping the question they will always remain eminently the correct thing.

"But with the United States Government offering War Savings Stamps on the terms it is now doing, and with the Government's guarantee to pay four percent compounded quarterly, many millions more are going to be put into these baby bonds than in the sparklers."

"Diamonds are all right, but the price fluctuates, and then when they are offered for sale the Shylock is often in evidence, while these Government securities are as sure as death and taxes, which is some sure."

HOT HEADS TO THE REAR

(Omaha Bee)

The most deplorable part of the labor unrest breaking out from time to time into strikes in the feeling of mutual distrust and often of undisguised hostility engendered between employers and employees. Each side is kept away from the other by a fear that the other fellow may "put one over," and no matter what kind of a proposal is advanced to open the way for a better understanding it is foredoomed to be rejected without serious consideration merely because it comes from the other side.

So many false or disordered reports are constantly circulated and freely accepted, so scarce is broad and farsighted leadership, so willing are misguided people to follow the professional trouble-breeders, so set do all soon become against yielding anything, that once the strike is on, the disposition to listen to reason or to respect the rights of the general public or innocent third parties is well-nigh lost. The hardest thing in the world is to make men in this situation to keep even tempers and see clearly though it be the very first requisite.

The hot-heads on both sides should be sent to the rear.

Our idea of a clever man is one who never attempts to do things he knows he can't.

WHO FOUNDED THE RED CROSS SOCIETY? ANSWERED

A correspondent wants to know who founded the Red Cross. But she desires that her name be withheld, because she is a member of the Red Cross and is ashamed that she does not know who founded the institution.

Lake Division headquarters of the American Red Cross supplies the following information: Henri Dunant was the founder of the Red Cross. He was a man of means, devoted much of his life to the alleviation of human suffering and was known as one of the most philanthropic of men. He was half French and half Swiss.

After the battle of Solferino, where the Austrians were routed and where Europe was freed from the menace of the Hapsburgs, Dunant visited the field and the hospitals. The arrangements for taking care of the wounded were so poor that he determined then and there to devote the rest of his life to perfecting plans for the care and treatment of soldiers engaged in battle—and he didn't care whose soldiers they were. He began writing letters to prominent people, and asking for support of his proposition.

Empress Eugenia, of France, was one of the first prominent persons to take an interest in Dunant's proposition. The mother of the ex-Kaiser was early impressed with the idea. She was a daughter of Queen Victoria, of England. She and Eugenia had much to do with the success of the idea, but many other prominent people also had a good deal to do with it.

A convention was called at Geneva on October 26, 1863, and fourteen nations sent representatives, the object of the convention being stated to be "An international conference for the purpose of inquiring into the means for correcting the inadequacy of the sanitary service of armies in the field." Dunant addressed the conference and urged his ideas upon the delegates, with the result that the convention adopted resolutions declaring war hospitals inviolate, and ordering that nurses and surgeons should be safe from molestation. The delegates made arrangements at the time for the formation of an international society to attend to the details, and adopted the emblem—a Red Cross upon a white field. That was the origin of the Red Cross.

To-day the extension of the idea, service to sufferers of all nations and peoples, constitutes the peace time program of this world revered organization.

SCREEN THE PORCH

"Don't try to pass the summer without having the back porch well screened. It will cost only a trifle and along with furnishing a cool workroom for the women folks, it will prove a fine place for the summer meals. Then, if care is taken not to deposit garbage pails and other waste materials where they will prove fly attractors, it will be found that the number of this summer pests is decreased. There are few pests more annoying to the housewife than the insistent housefly."

To the above clipping the House Demonstration Agent says, Amen. Flies used to be considered a nuisance, but now they are known to be a dangerous pest. The cost of screening a back porch may save some member of the family from serious spell of illness. Surely every precaution should be taken to guard the health of the whole family from flies which have come from nobody knows what kind of filth.

NOT WORTH A CONTINENTAL.

"Boys, I wish I had been given an opportunity like this when I was young," said an aged worker, in a Louisiana tool factory. "If I had been I would be worth something now. I have been working hard, all my life, and to-day I am not worth a continental. I am going to sign a card and save what I can even if I am old."

These are the verbatim remarks of a repentant man sixty-two years old who listened attentively to the talk made by State Organizer Senford, of the War Savings Organization, just prior to the organization of a War Savings Society in a tool manufacturing plant at Louisiana, Mo. The society was duly organized, has a large list of active members, and Uncle Sam gets part of the enormous sum required to keep the smoke going up the chimney while the members are building the foundation for a competence.

WAR MEMORIAL MOVEMENT IS ON.

Kentucky is to erect on the campus of the University of Kentucky at Lexington, a memorial building to the men and women of the State who gave their lives in the war with Germany. The University gives the site, but the building is to be the property of the people of the State, and will be built by them, the University faculty, students and alumni have expressed their intention of aiding in paying for the construction of the building, and about $9,000 already has been raised among them in an incomplete campaign as the nucleus of the fund.

Some of the most prominent men and women of Kentucky are on the committee to raise this fund. This county, which sent its own share of men to the war, of course, will give its proper quota for the building whenever that quota is determined and the matter finally presented to the people.

Mrs. Craig was the wife of Mr. James M. Craig, and the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Willett, her mother's maiden name being Miss Nancy Coons. Mr. and Mrs. Craig resided for many years on their farm on the Clintonville pike, but of late years have been living on a farm which they purchased on the Wade's Mill pike some time ago. JOHNSON.

Following an illness from a complication of diseases, extending over a period of several months, Mr. Wm. Henry Harrison Johnson, aged seventy-nine, one of the best-known and most respected of the older generation of Paris citizens, paid the great debt to nature at his home on Mt. Airy Avenue, in this city, at 7:10 o'clock Sunday night. Mr. Johnson had been ill for several months, and all that medical science could do could not prolong his life further. About two years ago he fell on the icy pavement, sustaining injuries from which he never fully recovered, and which kept him virtually a prisoner in his home.

Mr. Johnson was a native of this county, having been born near Millersburg. His parents were the late James Harrison and Susan Martin Johnson, both prominent residents of the Millersburg vicinity. He received his early education in the schools of his time, and in after years engaged in business in Millersburg. Mr. Johnson's wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, died in 1903. For several years Mr. Johnson conducted the Johnson House in Millersburg, one of the most noted hosteries of the day, and one which is remembered to this day by the older residents for the excellence of its cuisine. Mr. Johnson was a man of many intellectual attainments and had a wonderful memory. During the period of his unwilling confinement at his home he enjoyed nothing so much as having his friends call and go over the old times with him, his mind proving a veritable storehouse of facts, incidents and happenings in connection with local, county and State history that was truly remarkable.

After Mr. Johnson and family moved to Paris he entered the grocery business, which he continued up to the time he was compelled to retire from active business.

He was a member of Halleck Lodge I. O. O. F., of Millersburg, and was always deeply interested in the work of that order. He was one of the leading members of the Baptist church.

Mr. Johnson is survived by four daughters, Miss Susie Johnson and Mrs. Lydia Conway, both of this city; Mrs. John Clark, of Lexington; Mrs. Virgil Chandler, of Columbus, Ohio, one son, Mr. Harold Johnson, of Columbus, Ohio, and two sisters, Mrs. M. R. Collier, of Paris, and Mrs. B. F. Morford, of East St. Louis, Illinois, and several grandchildren.

The funeral will be held from the family home on Mt. Airy Avenue, at four o'clock this (Tuesday) afternoon, with services conducted by Rev. R. C. Goldsmith, pastor of the Paris Baptist church. The burial will follow in the Millersburg Cemetery. The pall-bearers will be: Active—Thos. H. Pickrell, G. W. Judy, T. D. Judy, Robert Collier, W. H. H. Conway, G. D. Judy; Honorary—Will G. McClintock, W. C. Dodson, T. J. Judy, L. M. Vanhook, E. B. January.

GUARD ENCLAMPMENT POSTPONED UNTIL WEEK OF AUG. 23

The encampment of the Kentucky State Guard has been postponed until August 23. It will last one week. The government had agreed that the State Guards might use Camp Zachary Taylor during July.

However, it will be impossible for the encampment to be held this month, according to a telegram from Adjutant General Tandy Ellis, to Dr. H. B. Tileston, Captain of the Louisville company. The reason given was that members will be unable to attend from Lexington and Paducah because of it being harvest time.

An effort will be made to obtain permission of the government to use the camp next month.

There are four companies of the State Guard, of seventy-five men each. The men enlisted for home duty during the emergency and their term of enlistment expires one month after ratification of peace. The plan of the organizers is to make these companies the nucleus for reorganization of the old First Kentucky Regiment.

SHALL WE HALT OR ADVANCE?

One year ago, when the fate of the world was hanging in the balance, the American soldier in the front line trenches in France was given the word to start for Berlin.

To the glory of American arms, when the doughboy was ordered to go ten miles he did not halt and say, "No, I won't go ten miles. I'll just go eight miles." He went the full ten miles and many more and democracy was saved.

Last fall the American people pledged the largest sum ever subscribed in the history of man for a similar purpose; to minister to the physical, mental and spiritual needs of men in the service everywhere. The campaign was carried on by seven great agencies, the Y. M. C. A. the Y. W. C. A., the National Catholic War Council (Knights of Columbus), the Jewish Welfare Board, the War Camp Community Service, the American Library Association and the Salvation Army.

To date the payments on these subscriptions have covered about eight miles on a ten mile advance. The army and navy are far from being demobilized. Every penny subscribed in that campaign is needed. Kentucky is a little better than the rest of the States in average collections, but stands eighth in the 13 States in the Central Army Department. Three States, North Dakota, Kansas, Iowa, are over the top. Then comes Ohio, Illinois, Nebraska, Colorado and Kentucky. Indiana is third from the last.

KING EDWARD'S WARNING AFTER VISIT TO GERMANY.

Dinner was over; the servants had left. The thin smoke of cigars and cigarettes rose up to the gilt ceiling of the large, dignified room when the laughter and conversation of the men whose faces and figures formed the subject of caricatures in the English papers suddenly died away.

The host, a bearded man with high forehead and heavy, bovine eyes, leaned forward. In his rather fine white hand he held a thick amber cigar holder, which he used as a sort of baton to enforce his words.

"Gentlemen," he said in the peculiar guttural voice which was known and loved in many strange parts, "look out! I have asked you here on my return from Germany to say to you, look out! O colossus is stretching himself. Every great muscle of his arms is taut and hard. Every little cell of his great brain reverberates with two words only, 'Der Tag' * * *

"We live in a false security here. We are a democracy which tolerates a monarch. You, gentlemen, are our autocrats. Each one of you is the king of England. What are your majesties going to do? Are you going to continue to play Canute and hold up your hands to the waves and say, 'Back?' Are you going to continue to sit within the apparently impregnable walls of your party system? Because, if so, the security of this kingdom and your little crowns is not marketable. There are no bidders. I say to you again, look out!" That man was King Edward VII, of Great Britain and Ireland. —Cosmo Hamilton, in the Century.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCES NEW W. S. SAVINGS PLAN.

State Director James B. Brown, Savings Division, War Loan Organization, of Kentucky, has received the following telegram from the Treasury Department at Washington:

"Savings Division, Treasury Department, has announced that savings certificates in denominations of $100 and $1,000 would be issued for purchase and investment at once. War Savings Stamps of denominations of five dollars are convertible into these securities, which bear the same rate of interest as Savings Stamps, four per cent. compounded quarterly."

"Widespread and continued saving and investment in five dollar stamps throughout the country has caused insistent demands for Government security, which would combine safety and profit of savings stamps with convenience in handling registration. New securities have been issued in response to that demand and to provide medium for investment of funds of fraternal societies, labor unions, civic, social and religious organizations, which signified their desire to invest their funds in these Government Savings Securities."

"One hundred dollar certificates are convertible into $1,000 certificates. Limit of investment of $1,000 for each individual, which is feature of Savings Stamp issue has been retained."
